

CADERNOS DE ESTUDOS SEFARDITAS is a biannual peer-reviewed journal, which is indexed to the international databases Latindex, Qualis/CAPES, and WorldCat.

The editors invite authors to submit original research articles, which have not been previously published in other journal or book, concerning Sephardic Studies, Iberian Conversos History, and Sephardic Diaspora.

The following issue of the journal will give priority to articles concerning the intellectual and artistic production from the Sephardic Diaspora communities (15th-20th centuries).

It will be accepted papers in Portuguese, Spanish, English, French and Italian. All papers will be evaluated by double-blind review system.

The articles should not exceed the 50.000 characters, including blank spaces and footnotes. It should be included an abstract (<900 characters, including blank spaces) and four or five keywords. All source citations should come in footnotes and according to The Chicago Manual of Style (17th edition).

Authors must submit their papers before September 6 to the email address: cadernos_sefarditas@letras.ulisboa.pt

Further information in:

<http://www.catedra-alberto-benveniste.org/revista.asp>