

1778, 13 Novembro, Stratford. Carta de Isaac Mendes Seixas a Hayman Levy, propondo o casamento entre Benjamin Mendes Seixas e Zipporah Levy.

(Nova Iorque, American Jewish Historical Society, Jacques Judah Lyons P-15. Publicado em "Items relating to the Seixas family", Publications of the American Jewish Historical Society, 27, 1920, pp. 171-172.)

Stratford, November 13, 1778

Mr. Hayman Levy,

Sir:

It is at request of my son Ben. Seixas that I presume to trouble you with this, to acquaint you that he has informed his mother and myself that he has a very great regard for your daughter, Miss Ziporah Levy, and should think himself very happy if he could obtain your consent and approbation, as well as your amiable sponse's and all others connected with the young lady, in permetting him soon to be joined to her in the sacred bonds of matrimony.

We have no manner of objection there to and most sincerely wish it may meet with your parental approbation, and that it may prove a source of joy and happiness to all our families. I hope this may find you, good Mrs. Levy, all the children and conections enjoying perfect health. Mrs. Seixas and all our family join with me in our most respectfull salutations, and I remain, sir,

Your most obedient and humble servitor,

Isaac Seixas

No verso: "Isaac Seixas letter Stratford November 13 1778

To Mr. Hayman Levy, merchant

By son Ben. Seixas, Philadelphia